

PRESS RELEASE

SUNRISE ROTARY ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS FOR FIRST QUARTER 2017 “UNsung HERO AWARD”

The Sunrise Rotary Club of Marco Island announced today it is accepting nominations for quarterly “Unsung Hero” program. The Unsung Hero has gone above and beyond the call of duty. He or she will be a special person who has done extra special things for the Marco Island community without receiving pay or expecting praise or recognition.

The Club’s Board of Directors will vote on the award, but the nominee cannot be a Rotarian. The recipient will be a person who in terms of the Rotary motto “Put service above self.”

The nominee must either reside in Marco Island, Florida at least six (6) months or be employed and working in such employment on Marco Island at least thirty (30) hours per week or be nominated for service provided on Marco Island.

Chairman Bill Morris stated, “Our recipients epitomize unselfish service to our community. We are excited to present this award to another worthy person.”

Nominees will be selected for community work that is not related to Rotary activities. The recipient will be someone who has not generally been honored and recognized by a public organization or testimonial. The recipient will also generally be unknown to the majority of the community.

The Unsung Hero will be recognized by award of a plaque, a $100.00 donation by the Sunrise Rotary to a charity of the Unsung Hero’s choice and 20 polio vaccines to Rotary International.

Past recipients have included Jada Shigley, Carmen and Barbara Dasti, Craig Greusel, Rose Kraemer and Susan Kubat.

Nomination forms may be obtained from Sunrise Rotary at www.marcosunriserotary.org or from Bill Morris, 247 North Collier Blvd. Suite 202, Marco Island, Florida 34145 or wgm@wgmorrislaw.com and should be submitted to Bill Morris.

For further information about the Sunrise Rotary “Unsung Hero” program, please contact Chairman Bill Morris at wgm@wgmorrislaw.com.